

Press Release

New Management at Engel & Völkers Southwest

By the end of year 2007, Engel & Völkers Southwest Invest would like to announce some recent changes. Andreas Heider, until now the sole Managing Director of 15 offices in excellent locations between Puerto de Andratx, Soller, Santa Maria and Lluçmajor introduces Daniel Chavarria Waschke as a joint Managing Director with effect from the 15th of December 2007.

Daniel Chavarria Waschke, has been with Engel & Völkers for 5 years and is one of the most successful office directors of E&V worldwide. He will dedicate himself mainly to the sector of residential properties while Andreas Heider has set himself the target to extend the sector of commercial properties as well as project development and project management.

Andreas Heider remains Managing Partner of Engel & Völkers Southwest on Majorca and Sardinia, where last summer the first Engel & Völkers shop was opened in Porto Cervo.

At the same time, long-time colleagues Ratko Kucan and Sassan Keshawarzian take over the responsibility for the offices in Puerto de Andratx; Ratko Kucan presides over Andratx I and Sassan Keshawarzian over the Andratx II – office.

It is interesting to mention that E&V Majorca has 3 of its 26 offices from Majorca among the top 10 E & V most successful businesses worldwide. Thanks to the professional cooperation between all license partners of Majorca and the highly effective international cross-selling over 500 properties were sold in 2007.
